"Ethics In Insurance"

This course will review the financial and personal impact of business ethics. The repercussions of ethical and unethical decisions and the business impacts of such decisions will be reviewed. Additional discussion will be centered on generational ethics and the direct impact on the insurance industry. Finally, the course will explore ethical concerns in the auto glass industry and the importance of seeking out ethical partnerships for your agency.

To register simply e-mail: george.spelius@safelite.com

Please provide your First and Last Name, your NPN Number and State.

After that, a link to the webinar will be emailed to you.
